DETAILED ACTION

1. The Amendment filed by Applicant on 03/08/2007 has been entered.

Response to Amendment/Arguments

2. Applicant's amendment and arguments filed on 03/08/2007 have been fully considered and they are found persuasive.

3. The rejection of claim 1 and 42 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter/Reasons for Allowance

4. Claims 25-42 are allowable.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art located or identified by the Examiner is Wandelmaier. Wandelmaier teaches a method for preparing an aqueous coating composition comprising (1) preparing a special effect pigment composition comprising a special effect pigment, polyacrylate water-dilutable resin and additive including surface active ingredient; (2) preparation of a layered silicate; (3) at least one binder composition comprising a polyurethane water-dilutable resin. See Wandelmaier, col. 2, line 20 through col. 3, line 7; col. 5, lines 36-43; col. 9, lines 36-61. The Examiner has decided in light of the present amendment to give "the flexographic printing elements" patentable weight. Wandelmaier does not mention "the flexographic printing elements" limitation and references that mention "the flexographic printing elements" do not disclose the layered silicate limitation.

6. As of the date of this final office action, the Examiner has not located or identified any reference that can be used singularly or in combination with another reference including Wandelmaier to render the present invention anticipated or obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
